

Model Questions Political Science-III

Short Notes:

1. Law of Comparative Advantage.
2. Balance of Power.
3. World Trade Organization.
4. End of Cold War.
5. War on Terror.
6. Mutually Assured Destruction
7. Soft Power
8. Balance of Payments
9. I.M.F
10. World Bank.
11. Brexit.
12. Prisoner's Dilemma.

Short Questions:

1. What is NPT? What are the principal criticisms leveled against NPT by nuclear non weapon states?
2. Why was International Monetary Fund created after the Second World War? Discuss its role towards developing countries.
3. Do you think that post September 11 2001, there has been a decline in U.S's soft power? Elaborate by giving suitable examples?
4. What are the principal tenets of realist theory of international politics?
5. Critically examine the main features of India's Nuclear doctrine.
6. Outline the main features of Marxist theory of international politics.
7. Democracies do not go to war with each other. Thus democratic spread will make world more peaceful. Do you agree with this statement? Give reasons for supporting or opposing this argument.

Descriptive Questions:

1. Economic globalization promotes prosperity for all. The greatest advantage of economic globalization is that it is a game of winners and winners. Although, it makes the rich richer, it also makes the poor less poor. Do you agree with this view? Give reasons for supporting or opposing this view?
2. The United Nations is without doubt the most important institution created till date. The fact that the two world wars of the twentieth century have not been followed by World War three clearly justifies its importance in maintaining peace and stability in this world. Do you agree with this view? Give reasons for supporting or opposing this view?
3. Energy is the most fundamental requirement of every society or nation as it progresses through the ladder of development. Nuclear power is our gateway to a prosperous future. Analyze the significance of Indo-U.S nuclear deal in the light of the above statement. What do you think are the pros and cons of Indo-U.S nuclear deal for India?