Welcome Message from The Additional Pro-Chancellor Academic

It is a great credit to be part of an educational organization that definitely trusts in preparing strong-minded students to be imminent elites.

I have seen how Glocal University has developed to its present state as a source of superior education in several areas. We understand the consequences of learning and its related communication procedures, which suggest us to apply these techniques in our teaching environment. We have hired best teachers who are not only the great learners while they are capable to combine their knowledge with the real world scenario. It is astonishing that we are achieving knowledge with skills with the market value and future strategies which would make our students capable to compete internationally.

Today, when the market stresses a lot more outside just basic skills, a proportion of importance has been placed on the general temperament and growth of the scholars so as to allow them to acquire the necessary confidence to face the tasks of the contemporary requirements. An industry oriented, skill subjected and personality related progress combined with latest information technology developments would certainly provide the students the required components to face the modern world. Thus we fulfil the primary objective of providing students what they deserve in this frequently progressing world.

We always think in terms of changing scenarios coupled with the human personalities which would be able to create futuristic mind-set that will shape to a country construction with a robust adherence to commercial morals. We believe that, a high level research activity along with the inclusion of industrial components is not only prerequisite while it is the need of hour to apply these solutions to newly developed problems.

We call upon students to formulate their prospects of the novel millennium at our university in a multicultural environment which not only benefit them at academic, industrial and personal levels while it will also add a new dimension in their career.

VISION

Global canvass, local colours—that is what we, at Glocal, simply believe in. It is the prism that refracts all our endeavors—whether it is our architecture, curriculum design, pedagogy, hostel life, laboratories, café or the library. In short, we simply celebrate the liminal space where the 'global' meets the 'local'. We are traditional, yet we are not. We are modern, yet we are not really so. We understand the hybrid nature of the global workplace and that is why no boundaries constrain us. To flourish in the world today, one cannot afford substantive and rigid visions of the good life. One has to appreciate the negotiated nature of the contemporary. That is why we emphasize reflexivity, flexibility, diversity and accommodation as key values. While that is the ethos of critical engagement, we aspire to craft, we are equally keen to develop top quality professionals for our customers: the corporate, public sector and the academia.

To pursue and owe this degree is quite enough to become a doctor (Hakim). The Unani System of Medicine is a traditional healing system with roots in ancient Greek medicine, developed by scholars such as Hippocrates and Galen, and widely practiced in India today. It is based on the concept of maintaining balance among the four humors—blood, phlegm, yellow bile, and black bile—which correspond to different body temperaments (mizaj). The system emphasizes natural healing through diet (Ilaj-bil-Ghiza), herbal medicines (Ilaj-bil-Dawa), regimental therapies (Ilaj-bil-Tadbeer), and, when necessary, surgery (Ilaj-bil-Yad). Known for its holistic approach, Unani medicine focuses on strengthening the body's natural defense mechanisms, preventing diseases, and treating chronic conditions with minimal side effects, and it is officially recognized in India by the Ministry of AYUSH. An eminent physician and distinguished scholar of Unani medicine, Hakim Ajmal Khan played a pivotal role in promoting and strengthening the Unani system in India. The Unani System of Medicine is formally recognized under the Central Council of Indian Medicine through the IMCC Act, 1970. Furthermore, the BUMS (Bachelor of Unani Medicine and Surgery) degree is duly recognized by the National Commission for Indian System of Medicine under Section 35 of the NCISM Act, 2020.
